

Eco Dyeing Workshop for Beginners with Birgit Moffatt

22 November 2020 9.30 am-4 pm

Description

Eco Dyeing (also called leaf print or eco print) is a direct contact dye method drawing out pigments from leaves into fabric. In this workshop you will learn about how to successfully eco dye on protein fibres (silk). We will go for a short walk around the park to collect some plant material, which we will then use to create our silk bundles. Let's get wild!

You will learn

- about plants and fabrics
- equipment
- mordant techniques
- different bundle techniques

Included in the workshop fee are materials for testing and exploring and, one silk scarf (medium size) and a handout with mordant recipes, dye plants, tips, sources etc.

Tools and materials for the workshop are provided but please bring

- camera or pen and paper for notes
- an old towel
- eucalyptus leaves, dried leaves, onion skins, small flat pieces of rusty objects (if you have)
